Foreword

AS we sail the sea of life, may the "Torch" relight the memory of the course we steered through high school. . . . Though there were stormy days . . . and days when we were becalmed . . . we will remember only the smooth sailing on this, our pleasure cruise.

DEDICATION

As a small token of our appreciation of her wise and kindly guidance throughout our high school days, we, the class of '37, gratefully dedicate the "Torch" to our Patron Saint

FRANCIS R. PARKER

FOR three and one-half years the ship of '37 was guided and piloted through both calm waters and stormy seas by that loving, faithful captain, Mr. Parker. Each member of the crew had the privilege of seeking advice from this kind captain. His decisions, which were wise and just, were always respected. He was an inspiration to all, because of his fine intellectual ability his liberal ideas and opinions, and his sympathetic understanding of the problems of young people.

DR. ALBERT H. HELMKAMP

WE welcome Doctor Helmkamp as the new principal of the Elmira Free Academy. He has already proved that he can competently fill the position which Mr. Parker held for so many years. It is a difficult task which faces him but we are confident that, with the ability he has shown from the beginning, he will overcome all obstacles. He has shown his interest in and fairness toward all students and his unfailing efforts in their behalf have already endeared him to their hearts. We wish for him much success as principal of the Academy.

DILLON A. CADY
Vice-Principal

WE wish to express our gratitude to Mr. Dillon Cady for the interest which he has shown in the students during and since Mr. Parker's absence. His patience and willing cooperation will always be remembered and appreciated by the pupils of E. F. A.

SENIOR CLASS

Dear Classmates:

I could write pages on the "glories of old E. F. A." but I don't think I shall. Of course we shall all remember the wonderful good times we have had in connection with this school, and I don't believe there is one of the class of '37 that does not feel deep regret leaving, although we are looking forward to the things we are going to do and the good times we are going to have after graduating.

Surely you will all back me up when I pass on a word of thanks and appreciation to the faculty who have proved themselves real friends, always ready to take a few minutes to help any of us with our problems, in spite of the hardships brought upon them by the overcrowded condition of the school. I hate to think of the memories that the teachers will have of some of us, myself included, but we will have to agree that all of our classes would have been less of a problem and therefore much more profitable and enjoyable if we had realized the full importance of what Charles Steinmetz was talking about when he said, "Cooperation is not a sentiment; it is an economic necessity." This seems to be one of our trustiest weapons in the hunt for that most elusive and most sought after of all quarries, success.

Yours for lots of it,

ROBERT E. THOMAS

CLASS HISTORY

WE, THE CLASS OF 1937, are nearing the completion of four of the most exciting and eventful years of our life. It has been a period of mental growth for each one of us and the ultimate goal has, of course, been graduation, the most thrilling climax of all.

The first stage of our journey was rather uneventful, since we failed even to elect class officers. Nevertheless, we became well acquainted with our surroundings and the traditions of E. F. A. which prepared us for the future.

In our Sophomore year, we elected Robert Jerome president, Mary Clarke vice-president, Margaret Hardy secretary, and Robert Thomas treasurer. As sophomores, we successfully celebrated a class day and gave an assembly.

On the third lap of our journey, we chose Robert Thomas president, assisted by Elizabeth Baker, Frances Day and Robert Iszard. Gay red and white ribbons were conspicuous on Junior Day, which seemed to mark the beginning of real prominence for our class. The Juniors collaborated with the Seniors to have a socially successful prom.

Upon our return as Seniors in September, Robert Thomas was again elected president, together with Margaret Hardy vice-president, June Steen secretary, and Vinton Stevens treasurer. On May fourteenth, the Senior Play, "Big-Hearted Herbert," was presented under the able direction of Mr. John Colgan. It was most amusing and met with huge success. The Senior Prom was not held this year, so the Senior Reception remains the sole social event on our calendar. However, Senior Day made some retribution for this disappointment, and the long awaited commencement is yet to come.

Soon the members of the Class of '37 will be making their individual marks in this world, backed by their friends and educators, the faculty of E. F. A. May they have success.

JUNIOR CLASS

FOR THE THIRD CONSECUTIVE YEAR, the Class of 1938 has been organized and active in all school affairs. This year the class has chosen as their leaders, Thomas Gryski, president; Jane Tipton, vice-president; Jean Roe, secretary; James Schiefen, treasurer.

The first thing the class undertook was the selecting of the class jewelry. An able committee was chosen and immediately plans were made. The committee was composed of Frances Detamore, chairman, assisted by Marguerite Flanagan, Marguerite Cieri, Willard McDowell and Donald Groff.

Now the Juniors are eagerly looking forward to Junior Day which promises to be a colorful affair for the ending of the school year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

WE, THE SOPHOMORES OF E. F. A. feel that we have accomplished much this year, in acquiring knowledge, participating in athletics and school activities, and in gaining new and valued friendships. After we have added this year to our lives we will remember it in the future as one well-filled with reminiscences.

Early in September, the class elected Arthur Smith president, assisted by Lillian Collins vice-president, Marie Bailey secretary and Joseph Hurley treasurer.

The Sophomores who will soon be the Seniors of '39 wish their fellow-students success and happiness in their future years.

FRESHMAN CLASS

IN SEPTEMBER, the Freshman Class arrived to join the students of Elmira Free Academy hoping, not only to be happy with them, but also to gain sufficient knowledge that they might become as brilliant as the upper classmen.

Later on, the class elected its officers for the year. Freshmen activities, however, were somewhat restricted owing to their youth and inexperience, particularly in athletics. Nevertheless, they showed promise for the future not only along educational lines but also in their interclass workouts.

AS THE HUB OF THE WHEEL about which the activities of the Elmira Free Academy revolve, the Student Council has very successfully guided the destinies of the student body this year.

The Council sponsored the first school social event of the term, the fall carnival, at which a witch and a wizard were chosen to reign over the festivities.

In collaboration with The Vindex, the Council arranged the E. F. A. Varieties of 1937, a show which was enthusiastically received by the student body. Another carnival, held in the spring was also the result of Student Council work.

In addition to bringing many interesting assembly speakers to the E. F. A., the Council has proved itself to be an efficient, valuable organization in directing the affairs of the school.

Second row: Margaret Hardy, Jane Campbell, Virginia Bowlby, Edgar Denton, Walter Mills, Eleanor Lindell, Nancy Causer.

THE BIOLOGY CLUB is now completing its eighth year of activity in the field of natural science. During the past year, it has tried to make the meetings educational as well as social, by having speakers discuss special topics.

During the year, new members have enjoyed picnic suppers, theatre and swimming parties in the company of the old members. The main event was the annual dinner dance at which the officers for next year were installed.

UNDER THE CAPABLE GUIDANCE of Dr. A. B. Helmkamp, Forum has enjoyed a successful year. The club was divided into five teams which debated each other on suitable topics. The team which emerged victorious most often received an award at the end of the year.

Forum accepted a challenge from Hornell High School to debate on March 24. A committee was also appointed to schedule for debates with other schools in an effort to revive the interest in this educational sport.

As a crowning feature to a highly fruitful year the annual Forum banquet took place early in the spring. Forum can look back over last year with much satisfaction derived from its splendid debates and discussions.

DURING THE LAST YEAR, AGORA has been very active in school activities. In the first semester, fifteen new members were initiated into the club. Since then it has featured informal debates, speakers and discussions. The annual Forum-Agora debate is now being planned.

This year Agora sponsored the selling of E. F. A. pins in gold, blue and white to underclassmen. The club bought new pins for its own members.

THIS PAST YEAR has been considered a successful one for Masquers. Many new members were admitted after tryouts in December. Plays, reviews and dialogues have been given at the meetings at the Steele Memorial Library.

At a joint meeting with the Southside Dramatics' Club, Masquers presented the play, "Three's A Crowd." In May, they put on their annual play.

Pleasure and practical knowledge of dramatics have been both given and received by the members during the year.

THE STYLUS CLUB has been busy making signs for the carnivals and school clubs. In October, a banquet was held for the new members and at Christmas, the club made Christmas cards for the members' use. During the year the work of the members has been posted in the halls of the school. On St. Patrick's Day, a party was held in a local artist's studio.

Several speakers have been the guests of the club and the members have contributed talks at the meetings.

THE GIRLS' GLEE CLUB has not only had a great deal of fun singing this year but has been working diligently.

The main recreational event was a swimming party and later on they entertained the new members.

Following the usual procedure, they presented a cantata, "The Child Jesus," at Christmas time. They sang "The Far Horizon," at Park Church in March. The Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs of the Southside High School and the members united for this event. To conclude the program for the year, the members gave a concert in the latter part of May.

The club feels that it has accomplished a great deal this year and is looking forward to the activities of next year.

"GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP and the promotion of Athletics." This is the slogan that the girls of Phi Alpha Kappa have used to enliven school spirit.

Under the direction of the faculty advisor, Miss Breezie Owen, the members sponsored the founding of the Girls' Athletic Association.

The girls have supported the inter-class contests and gave a picnic supper for the Army-Navy players.

All Phi Alpha Kappa is looking forward to the presentation of a silver cup to the most athletic Junior or Senior in the Academy. The cup, which is a permanent award, is given annually in the hope of creating a better interest in girls' athletics.

SOON AFTER THE ELECTION and installation of officers, the Girls' Hi-Y launched a highly successful program for the year. One of the first things it did was to sponsor a fortune teller at the Hallowe'en Carnival. Among other things, the Hi-Y put on an original song contest, and aided in making the College Conference possible.

The club held luncheon and business meetings every two weeks, at which the moving picture industry and movie actors were studied.

SOON AFTER SCHOOL OPENED in the fall, the Boys' Hi-Y initiated a number of new members and since have experienced a pleasant, active year together. Each week at the Y. M. C. A., the club held a luncheon meeting at which many prominent Elmirans spoke. This not only made the meetings enjoyable but also gave the boys much valuable information.

At the football games in the fall, the club had the privilege and responsibility of patrolling the field. Then later in the year, several members attended the Older Boys' Conference at Albany.

With the coming of Spring, the members are planning for the annual outing.

ELMIRA HIGH SCHOOL BAND

THE ELMIRA HIGH SCHOOL BAND, under the direction of Mr. Biery, has well demonstrated its marching and playing ability. Again this year and as usual the fans were delighted by the many novel and impressive formations which the boys made. Since this picture was taken new red and black uniforms and new bass instruments were purchased. Although the band did not participate in the state contest here, they demonstrated their swing with great applause from the audience.

And now off to a new year and the band struts on.

ELMIRA HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

THIS YEAR, under the capable leadership of George J. Abbott, the Elmira High School Orchestra has improved both in numbers and in musical ability.

The orchestra began the season at the Park Church Lenten Forum on March 21, where it united with the Glee Clubs of the Academy and Southside High schools to present a cantata which was heartily received by a large, enthusiastic audience. A program was arranged for an assembly at the Academy.

The closing performance was held at the annual Spring Concert at the Southside High School. A full schedule is being planned for the fall.

In connection with the orchestra work, string quartet was formed under the direction of Gerald Keenan and a French horn quartet which was lead by William Biery. These groups also performed at many local affairs.

THE VINDEK

THANKS TO THE COMBINED EFFORTS of the literary and business staffs, The Vindex has enjoyed a very successful year. The literary staff produced a paper capable of winning third prize in competition with thousands of other school newspapers at the Columbia Press Conference; and the business staff has done commendable work in the advertising and circulation campaigns. Much credit is due also to Mrs. Jeannette Deuel, The Vindex's able adviser.

The 1936-'37 staff has added much to the Vindex's long traditions of high quality in journalistic endeavor.

SENIOR PLAY

"BIG HEARTED HERBERT," is a comedy in three acts, the story of a blustering, self-made man, Herbert, who is determined to be a plain man at any expense, even if the harmony of his home is broken up. If anyone is unaware of his determination, he takes great pains to let him know about it.

Finally his family turns the tables on him to show him how unreasonable he is, and the result is extremely humorous.

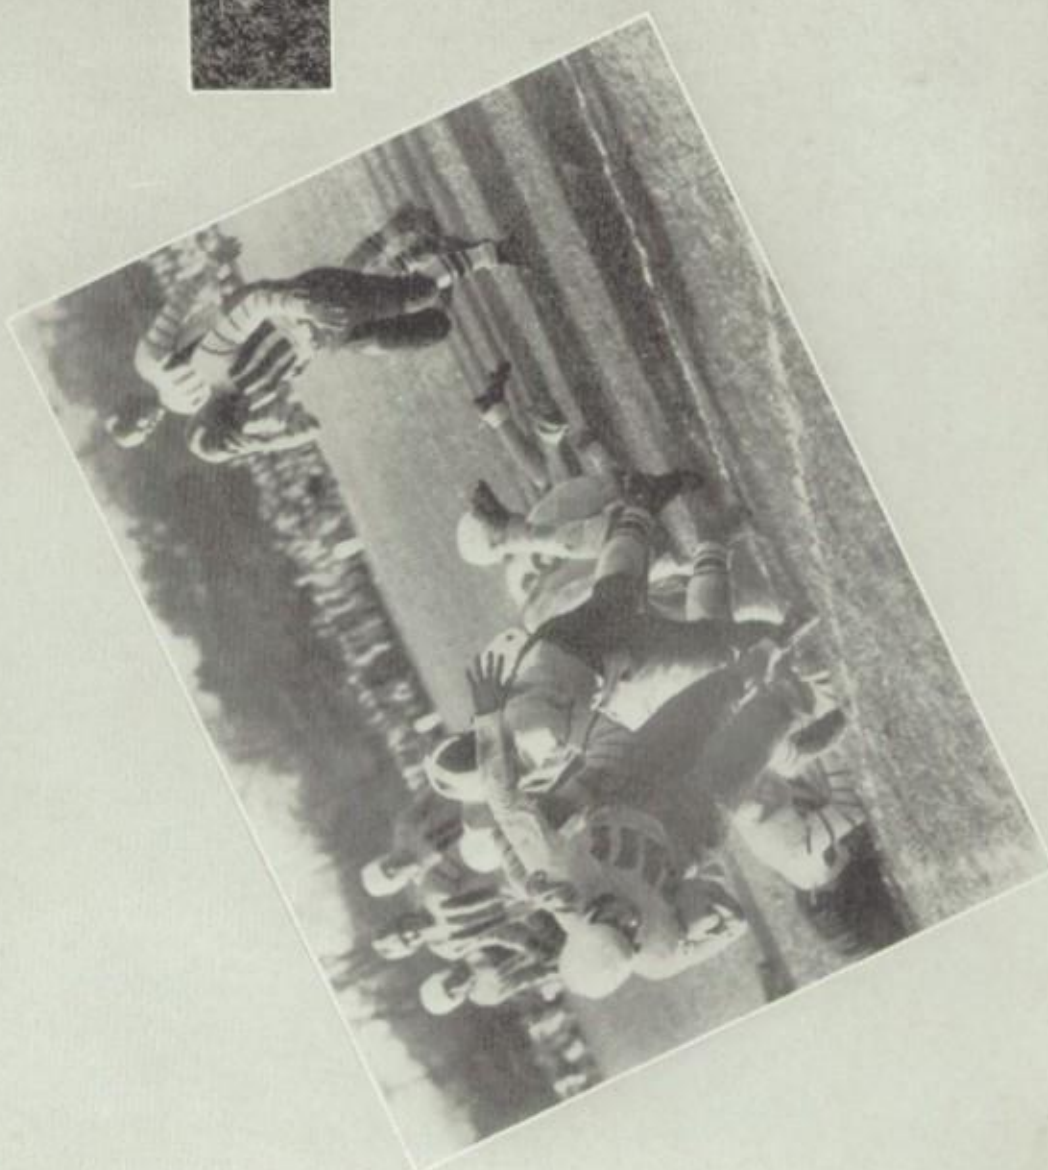

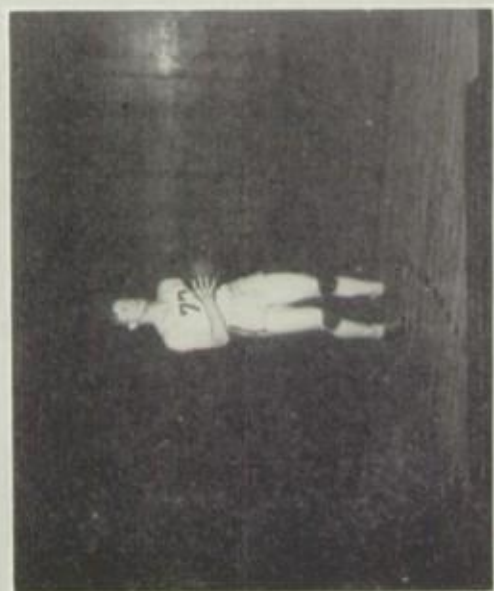

Under the capable direction of Mr. John Colgan the players gave the production before an enthusiastic audience on May fourteenth.

ANOTHER CHAMPION TEAM

WITH A SEASON as impressive as the last one, the Elmira High Schools' football team again won all their games and gained distinction of being one of the major undefeated teams in New York State.

It is generally conceded that the Utica team was the hardest to beat, but the majority of the fans will recall the Ithaca game as the most exciting.

Great things were expected of the 1936 team. There was a good reason for the expectations, for twelve letter men returned from the fine team of the year before. With this group as a nucleus, Coach Hirst molded a combination which, in all respects, lived up to the standard set by the team of the previous year.

The Blue and White started with a bang. On the third of October the strong Eastwood team of Syracuse came to the Harper Street field. The Syracusans returned to that city a sadder, but wiser group, on the short end of a 19-7 score.

The following Saturday the team, together with a large group of local fans, made the journey to Auburn. This game was of great importance to the upstate city, since it was the first game played in their new stadium. The warriors of E. H. S. were very inconsiderate, taking a good, but inexperienced, Auburn team by a score of 20-0.

October seventeenth was the first time that the Blue and White followers were worried about the outcome of a game. But the powerful Utica team came, saw, and was conquered. The score being E. H. S. 20, Utica 12.

The next victory was over the traditional foe, Binghamton. By winning this game, the local boys evened the score with their ancient rival; each has now won fifteen games. It also was the last game ever to be played between the two schools, as Bingo has broken athletic relations with Elmira. The score: Elmira 7, Bingo 0.

The closest score was that of the U.-E. game, Elmira winning by a margin of only three points, nine for E. H. S. while all that the Orange Tornado could get was six.

A hard-fighting Cortland team fell on the next Saturday under the push of a superior Blue and White. Using numerous reserves, the E. H. S. was able to win 24-0.

The final game of the season was with Ithaca. Nearly one thousand followers of the Blue and White accompanied the team. They were not disappointed. The two fast, light combinations fought the full four quarters. The E. H. S., with superior teamwork and blocking, won 26-20.

With a string of fifteen consecutive victories, the Elmira boys have set a fine record. The whole school will join in wishing the team of 1937, which will have sixteen returning letter men, all the luck in the world and that their season will be as fruitful as that of this year.

Second row: Hirst, Raschte, D. O'Neil, Andrews, Lemincelli, H. Sleeper, Johnson, Robertson, Young.

First row: Shaff, Messing, Ropelewski, H. O'Neil, LeValley, Crittenden, McConnell, B. Sleeper.

BASKETBALL

ALTHOUGH THE RECORD of three victories and seven defeats in league competition compiled by the 1936-37 edition of the Elmira High Schools' basketball team was far from brilliant, things were not as dark as they seem. A glance at the records shows that Blue and White lost only two games by a margin of over ten points, and only one of these could be called a rout. In its final game, Elmira succeeded in doing what no other team had been able to do in the league race, namely, to triumph over Cortland, champions of the western division of the circuit. Finally, and perhaps most important, there will be a large group of experienced players returning next season, and prospects are bright for an Elmira championship in 1938.

At the start of the campaign, Coach Hirst was blessed with only two veterans, "Red" O'Neil and "Flip" LeValley. These two, together with the sensational Sophomore shooter, Ropelewski, formed the nucleus for the team that Coach Hirst found necessary to juggle quite constantly during the season in an effort to hit upon a winning combination. Sleeper, McConnell, Messing, Shaff, Heher, Robertson, and Crittenden all saw considerable action in varsity games.

The opening game was a non-league encounter with the Reformatory who were a highly lauded aggregation. The Blue and White made a strong showing, and hopes rose regarding the conference chase. However, Endicott served notice that all was not to be so agreeable, when they took the first league encounter from the locals by a 38-25 score. Leon Ropelewski brightened the gloom somewhat by tossing in 16 points for E. H. S. A week later, the Hirstmen dropped a second decision to Johnson City, but kept the score close all the way.

The Elmirans scored their initial victory of the season at Ithaca, when they piled up an overwhelming advantage in the second period. The game was enlivened, or marred, which ever way one looks at it, by a display of fisticuffs, but Elmira beat off a last quarter rally to win 30-26. The Blue and White suffered its worst defeat of the season at the hands of Binghamton in a game about which the least said is the best. In the final contest of the round, the Hirstmen nearly upset Cortland, but failed by three points.

E. H. S. avenged its earlier licking at the hands of U.-E. by outpointing them 8-2 in an extra period to win 36-30. The Elmirans, however, suffered setbacks in their next three contests, losing to Johnson City by five points, Ithaca by two points, and Binghamton by five points, after leading at the halfway mark in each encounter. The locals completed the the schedule in a blaze of glory when they handed Cortland's Purple its initial conference defeat with a last half drive that carried them to victory, 19-17.

The Sophomore star, Leon Ropelewski, who finished fourth in the Conference race for point-getting honors, led the team in scoring. He caged forty-one field goals and twelve fouls for a season's total of ninety-four points. Harry O'Neil was second with twenty-nine field goals and 11 fouls for sixty-nine points, while Fred LeValley, veteran guard, was third with fifty-one tallies.

Second row: John Rich, George Joseph, Louis Mathews, James LeMark.

CLASS WILL

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

We the Class of 1937 of the Elmira Free Academy, being of sound mind and memory, do make, declare, and publish this last will and testament:

First—We bequeath to the faculty:

1. Our regretful departure, No!
2. Our hundreds to those who follow in our footsteps.
3. That endless duty of collecting worthless issues of magazines in restless study-halls.

Second—We bequeath to the Junior Class:

1. A new supply of excuses for those constantly occurring "spring fever" days.
2. The joy of the teachers in criticizing the seniors as their most unruly class of that day.
3. More "brain trusters" to occupy our past positions.

Third—We bequeath to the favored specimens of humanity:

1. To Bobby Schneck, Bob Jerge's expert technique with the women.
2. To Erwin Foster, "Lemon" Gridley's accident insurance.
3. To some poor devil, "Liz" Baker's job as Yearbook editor.
4. To "Pinky" VanHouten, blushing "Mickey" Clarke's love of oral topic days.
5. To the Erie Barge Canal, George Lewis' shoes.
6. To "Skip" Vandiver, "Babe" Flannagan's hot-dancing feet.
7. To "Suzy" Noble, "Peggy" Hardy's engagement book, (don't rush, boys).
8. To "Mitzi" Detamore, "Frannie" Day's capturing personality.
9. To "Phil" Flannagan, "Jerry" Leeson's line with the teachers.
10. To Jane Paxson, those gorgee-ous rolling eyes of Adria Mathews.
11. To Eleanor McPherson, "Blondie" Gregory's nickname.

Fourth—We bequeath:

1. To Mr. Schwenkler, a bigger lab for Seniors to loaf in during study halls.
2. To Mr. Perry, a new pair of rubber soled shoes so that he may continue his "pussy-footin'" (Clear the halls, etc.).
3. To The Vindex, another equally fine writer of scandal such as Nancy Causer.

TO each Senior who is entering upon life's stormy seas, we can only wish, "Smooth Sailing and Happy Landings."

Are you the one who used to go

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY

A Co-educational University with a background of ninety years' service to American youth.
Offers, under its new program, a broad general education in the first two years, freeing the last two years for concentration, pre-professional and professional specialization.

There are over one thousand students enrolled. The faculty is carefully selected, and there are ample religious opportunities. All athletics are organized.

WATER TIGHT — WON'T LEAK
SNAPS OFF IN AN INSTANT

End all your hose-coupling troubles—permanently! The Red-Cap coupling snaps on to any garden or threaded laundry-tub faucet . . . water-tight . . . disconnects in an instant. You have "snap on-and-off hose service." Red-Cap coupling can't pull apart—stands as much pressure as the hose itself! You can twist it freely 'round and 'round, because of its unique SWIVEL action! Use it in the garden, the laundry, on sprinklers, or to connect several lengths of hose. Equip every screw-on faucet NOW, with RED-CAP connections. Ask your dealer for a demonstration.

BANISHES CRAB GRASS AND WEED PESTS

One of the most annoying problems of lawn care is now thoroughly solved by means of this simple, inexpensive device. Quickly installed on any lawn mower, new or old. Gently combs, disentangles and lifts up grass and weeds for smooth, even cutting—gives your lawn a "barber's trim."

Prevents re-seeding of low-growing, lawn-destroying grasses and other annual weeds which ordinary mowing leaves untouched—they can't re-seed if you keep them cut down. Only with Mowerake can these lawn parasites be cut with an ordinary mower. Ask your dealer to demonstrate it.

Dear Jane.

This is kinda hard, writing so fast and you want a long note in such a short time.

There really isn't any thing to say because you already have a lot of letters.

I only hope we don't let any thing come between us. Since I do like you an awful lot, I hope you feel the same.

Well so long and don't
